

Join Fuákata & MetaMovements in Cuba:

Take a road trip across the island.... Dancing all the way!

Your Program: Made by Dancers For Dancers

This is your opportunity to advance your skills and train with Cuba's most talented dancers & burgeoning new artists! Join Fuákata as they team up with the organizers of the San Francisco Salsa Rueda Festival and MetaMovements to create a one of a kind program, never experienced before. For years both have been experiencing dance workshops & cultural exchanges on either side of the island and this July they will bridge the two communities through a cross country, 2 week road trip. When you're not dancing or learning about the music, you'll be immersed in the culture through the eyes of the locals -- learn what the daily life is like to be a professional dancer there, eat and drink the best Cuban cuisine has to offer, and go explore the iconic Old Havana.

"... Cuba was nothing I expected but more than I ever imagined! What a magical place!"
--Maritza A., Dance Professional

Notes about flight travel

As regulations are changing each day, we've been told by our agencies that charter flights will likely be the most economical and logistically simple way to get to the island! Consequently, we will be requesting discount flight options for you -- please hold off from booking any commercial flights while the travel agency researches the best options for your program.
